Abstract

In this paper, I describe how I discovered that I should've won the Economics Nobel Prize circa 1998.
The paper ends with "The End"

Introduction

Contrary to popular belief, due to advances in Machine Learning and Artificial Intelligence, it is now possible to predict whether or not an individual will be a Nobel Prize winner.

In this paper, I describe how I discovered that I should've won the Economics Nobel Prize circa 1998.

Methodology

Using Machine Learning on Mathematica Online hosted on Wolfram Cloud,
I discovered that I should've won the Economics Nobel Prize circa 1998.
